IAEM-Canada Awards Entry Process

Submission Deadline:

- The deadline for submission of IAEM-Canada 2010 Awards entries is July 30, 2010.
- Submission of Entries: Entries (including official entry form and required supporting documents must be submitted via email to IAEM-Canada President Catherine Blair, CEM, at Catherine.blair@mississauga.ca. All supporting documents must be submitted electronically via email or via URL links provided by the entrant.
- All entry forms must be submitted in English.
- Activities or programs must have been implemented and used during the period of July 1, 2009 through June 30, 2010.
- Only one entry may be submitted per award category.
- Do not enter an activity or program in more than one award category.

Follow These Steps

- Judges' Review. Judges will review the entry form and all supporting materials, including but not limited to: reports, brochures, videos or photos. For Web-accessible supporting materials for your entry, you may include the URL address link in your description or send the materials (in any language) as an electronic attachment via e-mail to your Council's contact person.
- Supporting Materials. The official entry form and supporting materials MUST be submitted electronically via e-mail.
- Special Note Regarding Technology & Innovation Award Entries: When providing links to an online project, please try to give the judges panel a static URL link to the project or specific instructions to navigate to the proper page from your Home page. The winning project must be capable of being shared with IAEM members via a link from the IAEM Web site. Also, you will need to provide 1-3 screenshots that demonstrate the value of the entry.
- Start with the requested summary (maximum 100 words). Then complete the full project description (four sections at no more than 200 words each). Be as detailed as possible, but choose your words carefully.
- Concentrate on the need, the activity's goal, its impact (in terms of outcomes), and the significance of its success. Numbers are very important as measurements of success, but also describe how the activity improved the lives of those involved or how it benefited society.

The following questions may help you decide how best to describe your program:

- When, why and where was the activity started?
- What were the activity's goal/objectives? How were they reached? How is your program innovative or an improvement over what has been done in the past?
- How did you/your organization's activity make a more prepared community, state, province, country"? What were the measurable outcomes of the program? Can you describe your program's actual impact on people, communities? What type and level of financial resources did it take to implement this program? What sources provided the funds and/or in-kind services?
- How were your organization's members and other volunteers (numbers of persons, groups, businesses, government agencies, etc.) involved in this program?
- What has your organization done to ensure its long-term financial and operational sustainability in order to continue its ability to "make a better world"?

To review IAEM's vision and mission, please go to www.iaem.com. If applicable, please review the following information for assistance in developing your entry.

- Scope of Project. Questions to consider include: Is the program innovative in scope, originality or execution in comparison to other entrants? How many people benefit from the program? Did the program involve member work, and if so, was there a broad inclusion of membership, or was the project completed by outside consultants, staff or PR firms?
- Public Relations Value. Questions to consider include: Does the program serve a group of people or program area that has been identified as critical by national public policymakers?
- Outcomes or Measurement of Objective. How well-defined and measurable are the goals and objectives? How was society improved by the program? How many individuals' lives were positively affected or improved by this program? Can the program be easily replicated by other organizations?
- Summary. In addition to these criteria, please end your Program Description with a concise summary of why the program is enhancing emergency preparedness.
