EMEX 2006
EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT & HOMELAND SECURITY EXPO

bringing together
homeland
security and
disaster
preparedness
suppliers

The information, products and services you offer are vital in today's high-threat world, so there's no better time than now to reach the customers who will see your resources through IAEM/EMEX. EMEX 2006 is the show that brings together homeland security and disaster preparedness suppliers, under the auspices of the International Association of Emergency Managers (IAEM).

Attendee Profile.

More than 750 leading emergency management and homeland security decision makers will convene in Orlando at the Orange County Convention Center for IAEM's 54th Annual Conference. The majority of attendees are purchasers or specifiers for their jurisdictions or corporations, to include disaster planning and preparedness managers, first response coordinators, emergency communications managers, private industry security and contingency planners, government continuity of operations managers, and contract services providers.
