

Mark O'Byrne Schlumberger Canada Limited

Mark is currently President, Palliser Production Limited, a wholly owned business unit of Schlumberger Canada. In this position, Mark is responsible for the development and management of alternative business models & joint venture operations with E&P partners.

With a total of 34 years of experience with Schlumberger, Mark has held many field, staff and management positions in a variety of geographic locations around the world, including VP of Schlumberger's surface seismic business based in the Dubai, UAE and the UK, VP Health, Safety and Environment for Schlumberger North America based in Houston, Texas and most recently, President Schlumberger Canada based in Calgary Alberta.

Educated in Canada, Mark began his career with Schlumberger as a summer student with Schlumberger's surface seismic segment. Mark is married and has two daughters who attend University of British Columbia, Vancouver.