Emergency Management Accreditation Program Training Opportunities

➤ EMAP Accreditation Manager Orientation

The EMAP Accreditation Manager Orientation course is currently open for registration. The orientation will be held at the Emergency Management Institute (EMI) on August 30-31, 2010 from 8:00am-5:00pm. The purpose of the course is to provide emergency management, preparedness, and homeland security personnel with information that will assist them in assessing their jurisdiction's system for disaster preparedness and response using the Emergency Management Standard by EMAP.

To register for the Accreditation Manager Orientation course please see the EMIGram for course E123, located at http://training.fema.gov/EMIGrams/gramdetails_trng.asp?id=121.

➤ EMAP Assessor Training

The Emergency Management Accreditation Program (EMAP) Assessor Training course is currently open for registration. The training will be held at the Emergency Management Institute (EMI) on September 2-3, 2010 from 8:00am-5:00pm. The purpose of the course is to train and qualify experienced Emergency Managers to serve as Assessors that will perform on-site assessments for a candidate's emergency management program. Assessor training is conducted to ensure that all members of the assessor cadre uniformly and consistently administer the principles of EMAP in all assessments. Training addresses means of validating compliance with EMAP standards and appropriate interaction with candidate program personnel during planning, assessment, and post-assessment activities.

To register for the Assessor Training please see the EMIGram for Course E124, located at http://training.fema.gov/EMIGrams/gramdetails_trng.asp?id=122.

For participants accepted into the course(s), lodging and travel per diem will be provided by and through EMI.

Please access additional EMAP training opportunities at www.emaponline.org.

If you have any further questions regarding these courses or additional EMAP training please contact Mr. Jarad Downing, EMAP Training & Technology Assistant, at 859.244.8210 or email at jdowning@csg.org.
